

LIVING FAITH

FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT
MARCH 11, 2018

THE GOSPEL FOR TODAY
JOHN 3:14-21

And just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, that whoever believes in him may have eternal life.

‘For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish but may have eternal life.

‘Indeed, God did not send the Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him. Those who believe in him are not condemned; but those who do not believe are condemned already, because they have not believed in the name of the only Son of God. And this is the judgement, that the light has come into the world, and people loved darkness rather than light because their deeds were evil. For all who do evil hate the light and do not come to the light, so that their deeds may not be exposed. But those who do what is true come to the light, so that it may be clearly seen that their deeds have been done in God.’

TAKING THE GOSPEL HOME

At hockey games, if you look closely around the spectators, you will often see somebody holding up a sign that reads: “John 3:16.” Did you ever wonder what that means? John 3:16 is a passage from Scripture! It is in today’s Gospel—“For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish but may have eternal life.”
