THE GOSPEL FOR
TODAY John 10:9-17

ROMAN CATHOLIC
ARCHDIOCESE OF ST. JOHN'S

I am the gate. Whoever enters by me will be saved, and will come in and go out and find pasture. The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy. I came that they may have life, and have it abundantly.

'I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep. The hired hand, who is not the shepherd and does not own the sheep, sees the wolf coming and leaves the sheep and runs away—and the wolf snatches them and scatters them. The hired hand runs away because a hired hand does not care for the sheep. I am the good shepherd. I know my own and my own know me, just as the Father knows me and I know the Father. And I lay down my life for the sheep. I have other sheep that do not belong to this fold. I must bring them also, and they will listen to my voice. So there will be one flock, one shepherd. For this reason the Father loves me, because I lay down my life in order to take it up again.

TAKING THE GOSPEL HOME

Imagine Jesus saying these words to you: "I came that you may have life, and have it abundantly." There are so many things that keep us from living full lives.

Sometimes we feel limited by the expectations of others, or by our own poor self-image. Sometimes we feel limited by poverty, or by geography. Sometimes we feel limited by addictions. Jesus promises life to the full.

CONVERSATION STARTERS....

- What does "living a full life," or "abundant life" mean to you?
- What keeps you from living that full life, promised by Jesus?
- How can you call someone around you to fullness of life this week?

Family Prayer for this week...

prayer to the Good Shepherd

Lord of the 23rd Psalm,
I have known death,
and you have refreshed my soul.
I have known fear,
and you have comforted me.
I have known hunger,
and you have set a feast before me.
In the darkest valley
no calamity of humankind or nature has separated us.

Teach me to walk as you walk
Beside those in mourning
so that they will know joy,
Beside those in fear
that they will know comfort,
Beside those in hunger
that they will feast until their cup overflows.

As your goodness and love follow me,
May mine follow my neighbor
That the threat of the worst terrors
May turn to the knowledge of the comforts of the house of the Lord,
Where you have invited us to dwell forever.

And so let me strive to help build on earth
What you have promised us in heaven.
In the face of all calamity, present and yet to come,
Let me lead my neighbor beside quiet waters,
The quiet waters of the Good Shepherd.

Amen

THE CHURCH TEACHES

LOVE IN THE FAMILY EXPLORING POPE FRANCIS' APOSTOLIC EXHORTATION, AMORIS LAETITIA

On March 19, 2016, Pope Francis published Amoris Laetitia (The Joy of Love). Over the next 12 weeks, we will be exploring this letter section by section. You can certainly get a good flavour of the document by following what we will present here over the next twelve weeks. But you might also like to have a copy of Amoris Laetitia on hand, so that you can read sections yourself. You can find it at the Vatican website, www.vatican.va. Today, we begin with a short summary.

Amoris Laetitia (AL), "The Joy of Love", the Apostolic Exhortation "on Love in the Family", was signed on March 19th, 2016. The choice of this date was not an accident! It's the Feast of St. Joseph.

The document brings together the results of the two Synods on the family that were convoked by Pope Francis in 2014 and 2015. In Amoris Laetitia Pope Francis often refers to the two final reports of these synods, as well as documents and teachings of the popes who came before him, and his own catecheses on the family (Pope Francis often speaks on themes taken from family life). In addition, in Amoris Laetitia, Pope Francis quotes the letters and documents of various Conferences of Bishops around the world (for example: Kenya, Australia, Argentina). He quotes from other authors and sources as well. This means that Amoris Laetitia is well-researched, and well-prepared, the product of a lot of thought, prayer and consultation by many, many people over a number of years.
